

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
WESTERN DIVISION
5:14-CR-119-D

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	)
v.	)	ORDER
JOSE ARMANDO SILIEZAR-SEVILLA,	)
Defendant.	)

This case came before the court today for a teleconference with counsel for the parties to discuss the possible need to continue defendant's detention hearing, currently set for Monday, 23 June 2014, as a result of defendant's present medical condition, which apparently requires immediate inpatient treatment and presents a potential health risk to others.<sup>1</sup> For good cause shown and with the parties' consent, the detention hearing in this case is hereby CONTINUED to a date to be set by the court after defendant's medical condition has been resolved. Defendant or the parties jointly shall file a motion for the re-scheduling of the detention hearing promptly after defendant determines that his medical condition permits him to proceed with the detention hearing. Defendant shall remain in custody pending the re-scheduling of his detention hearing.

Any delay that results from this continuance shall be excluded from the Speedy Trial Act computation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) on the grounds that the ends of justice served by granting this continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

<sup>1</sup> A preliminary hearing for defendant, who was initially charged by criminal complaint, had been scheduled for the same date (see D.E. 14), but his subsequent indictment (see D.E. 15) obviates that hearing.

SO ORDERED, this the 20th day of June 2014.

James E. Gates
United States Magistrate Judge
